

Talk to the World... Over Radio!

The Alpha Sigma Delta Radio Society is a campus organization open to all University of Oklahoma students who share an interest in the Amateur Radio hobby regardless of skill or knowledge level

What is Amateur Radio?

Amateur Radio is a licensed hobby where individuals make use of radio frequencies to communicate worldwide, experiment, and provide public service to their local communities.

For more information, contact the Club President at

Ethan.A.Friday-1@ou.edu

Get On The Air!

We support and volunteer in:

Emergency Communications
Radio Contesting
Antenna Building
Storm Spotting
And everything Radio!

Want to Learn More?

ARRL on YouTube:
“What is HAM Radio?”

SCARS Website:
<https://w5nor.org/ham>

Weekly Meetings:
w5nor.org/zoom
Password on Engage Event
Every Friday at 4:00 PM

Elmer Night
2207 Goddard Ave, Norman OK
Every Tuesday at 6:30 PM
<https://w5nor.org/elmernights>

Join the Discord!

<https://discord.gg/2jg38CM3EP>

EmComm for OKC Marathon

How to Get Licensed:

- Join The Discord and read #get-on-the-air
- The South Canadian Amateur Radio Society (SCARS) hosts free testing sessions the first Thursday of every month.
- Study guides are offered online and via physical books available from the club.

Primary Contact

Ethan.A.Friday-1@ou.edu